Your claim may be reduced, modified, or eliminated. Check if applicable. ☐ The plan provides for the payment of a domestic support obligation (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(14A)), set out in § You should read this plan carefully and discuss it with your attorney if you have one in this bankruptcy case. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm this plan without further notice if no objection to confirmation is filed. See Bankruptcy Rule 3015. To receive payments under this plan, you must have an allowed claim. If you file a timely proof of claim, your claim is deemed allowed unless a party in interest objects. See 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). The amounts listed for claims in this plan are estimates by the debtor(s). An allowed proof of claim will be controlling, unless the Bankruptcy Court orders otherwise. The following matters may be of particular importance. Debtor(s) must check one box on each line to state whether or not the plan includes each of the following items. Beginning with the first payment that is due after the date of the order for relief under Chapter 13, the debtor(s) will maintain the current contractual installment payments on the secured claims listed below, with any changes required by the applicable contract and noticed in conformity with any applicable rules. These payments will be disbursed directly by the debtor(s). Any existing arrearage on a listed claim will be paid in full through disbursements by the trustee, with interest, if any, at the rate stated below.

If relief from the automatic stay is ordered as to any item of collateral listed in this paragraph, then, unless the Bankruptcy Court orders otherwise, all payments under this paragraph as to that collateral will cease, and all secured claims based on that collateral will no longer be treated by the plan.
